FRONT COVER

BACK COVER

Winners of the Matt Longmuir Trophy for the Best Three Bulls at a Regina Winter Fair. The bull on the right is the good breeding bull that sold to George Cheal, Henribourg.

WELCOME

Possibly by way of a welcome I might give you a brief history of our herd.

I started breeding purebred Shorthorns in my own right about 1936. By 1949 my son Jack and I built up a nice herd of over 70 head. At this time we decided to sell out and had a complete dispersal.

But I wasn't really happy without them, so in 1954 I decided to start back in the business again.

Realizing that it takes time to build a good herd, I decided that whenever I got the chance I would buy from people that had cattle related to those that had been bred by my brothers or ourselves. In this way I got back into the same families that we had before.

Secondly, I always tried to keep a good herd sire. This, I think, has improved our young stock—especially our present herd sire, "Norseman Elect," and the Syd Berry bull, "Shirley Hoarfrost."

One of the first cows I bought was a good young one from Alf Dreger out of a female that he had bought from me. (I think this cow was Alf's first pure bred Shorthorn female which he bought when he started into Shorthorns.) That fall I bought two useful females from Dave Wotherspoon. Later I bought five good yearling heifers from W. H. Dixon, which were all related to cattle that had been bought from my late brother Lionel and by a good bull that I sold to Norman Helgason of Foam Lake. Three of these cows are being sold in this dispersal. Then in the following spring I got the chance to buy fourteen head from Albert Sandercock of Balcarres. These were some that he had bought when we sold out plus their offspring. Some of these and their offspring are being sold. I also bought two good cows from Norman Helgason and he told me later that they were his best breeding cows. Two heifers from these cows are selling in our sale.

Please accept this as our invitation to be with us at our dispersal on Wednesday, June 28th.

JAS. N. STILBORN

FOREWORD

The Stilborn name has been associated with the production of Shorthorns in this area of Saskatchewan for 65 years. In the early years of the homesteaders it was with the farmer's famous "red cow" and in later years developed into a registered breeding herd.

The first breeding cow that Jim Stilborn owned was "Heather Lassie," the grandmother of "Red Velvet" that sells as Lot 8. It is interesting to note that the start of the "Velvets" that became so well known under the expert showmanship of the late Bill Harrison, Dafoe, came from the Stilborns—Charlie and Jim. They owned a bull together called "Klaymor Enterprise" that was out of an imported cow "Silk Velvet." They, in turn, named his daughter "Silk Velvet" out of a cow called "Heather Princess." This latter "Silk Velvet" was the dam of the Grand Champion heifer pictured second from left on the front cover and also "Red Velvet." Bill Harrison bought the Champion heifer from Chas. Stilborn at Regina and then returned to the farm to buy her full sister and her mother "Silk Velvet."

Jim Stilborn sold out in 1949 and when he started back in about 1954 the first thing he did was to go to Albert Sandercock, Balcarres, and buy back "Red Velvet" and all the daughters she had produced. He also bought cattle from Alf Dreger, Norman Helgason, D. L. and Douglas Wotherspoon, Dave Wotherspoon — mostly cattle that traced back to his original herd.

Along this same line it can be said that Alf Dreger bought his first purebred Shorthorn from Jim Stilborn and his basic herd traces to that. George Cheal of Henribourg who had one of the best herds in northern Saskatchewan bought the good bull pictured at right on the back cover and then wrote back to the farm for two heifers. D. L. and Douglas Wotherspoon also used Jim Stilborn cattle amongst their foundation herd. All these cattle went back to the "Klaymor Enterprise" line.

Much of the success of this herd goes to the expert judgment and good guidance of Jim Stilborn's brother Charles. This can all be yours by attending and buying at this dispersal on Wednesday, June 28th.
